MNEMONICS

The major group colors can be remembered with the mnemonics:

- For a 100 pair cable (i.e. the first four colors), "Will Rosie Bite You?"
- "Why Run Backwards You Vomit"[3]
- "Winchester Rifles Bring You Victory"
- "We Respect Beautiful Young Virgins"
- A code used by AT&T (and later Lucent Technologies) installers is "Wild Real Blondes Yell Violently"

The minor group colors can be remembered with the mnemonics:

- "BOG BruSh" (This mnemonic is attributed[citation needed] to a British radio engineer, "bog brush" being a colloquial British term for a toilet brush.)
- "Boy On Girl Brings Satisfaction"
- "Bell Operators Give Best Service"
- "Big Old Gorilla Breath Stinks"
- "Big Orangutans Give Brown Shits"

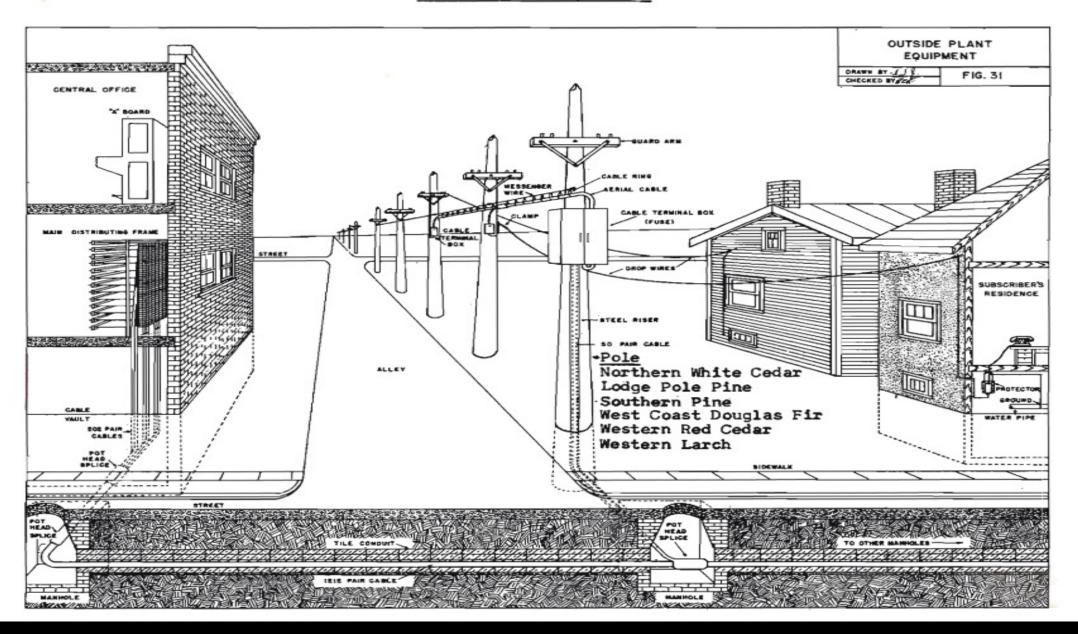

There is also a visual (language independent) mnemonic for the minor group colors. Imagine a sunset landscape top-down:

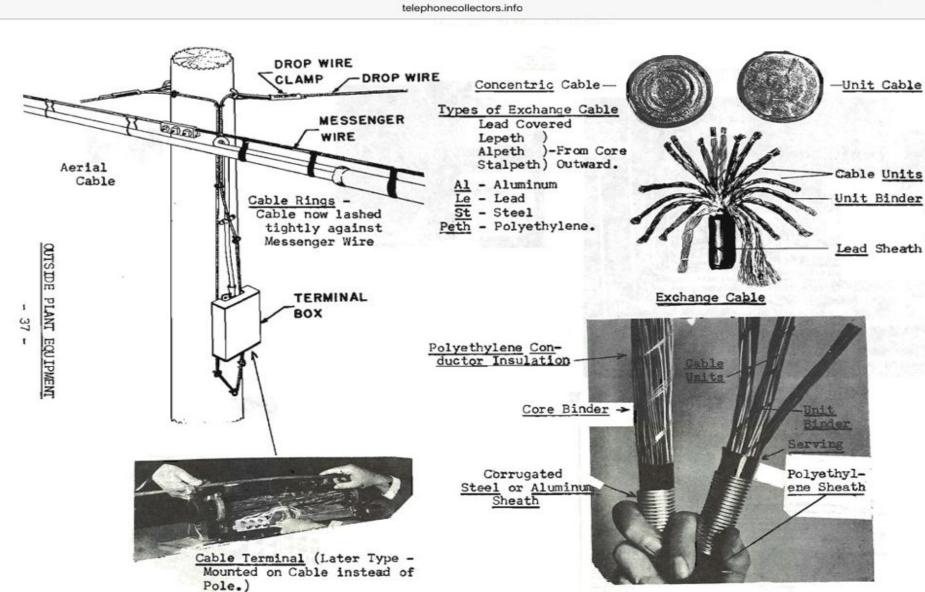

- The blue sky
- The orange sun
- The green forest
- The brown soil
- The grey bedrock

A mnemonic for both groups is "We Ride Big Yellow Vans Because Old Guys Break Stuff" or "Women Roast Bright Yellow Vegtables But Old Guys Brown Steaks"
